

New Naturopathic Medicine Clinic in Newtown

Shawn Carney

The beginning of summer has brought with it the opening of a new integrative naturopathic medicine clinic and therapeutic massage center for the whole family in northern Fairfield County. Northeast Natural Medicine, LLC is the private practice of Dr. Shawn M. Carney and his wife Stacy Carney, LMT, and is conveniently located 'at the flagpole' in Newtown, CT, just minutes off Exit 10 of I-84.

Their clinic offers high quality, individually-tailored, evidence-based care for the entire family's medical concerns, with all the sophistication you should expect in the 21st century. As a naturopathic clinic, they have a comprehensive variety of effective and minimally invasive interventions. As a therapeutic massage center, they also provide a wide array of bodywork treatments from experienced hands to meet a large variety of needs. Dr. Carney was trained as a primary care physician and offers some of the most innovative and least invasive diagnostic testing in healthcare today. His services also include personalized nutrition, detoxification and weight management programs, botanicals, homeopathy, physical medicine, and more. The practice is also in-network with most insurance companies.

Dr. Carney is located at 33 Main Street in Newtown. To contact Northeast Natural Medicine, LLC, call 800.723.2962 or visit NortheastNatMed.com. See ad pg 53.
